RUSSELL MCCUTCHEON, CONDUCTOR

Russell McCutcheon is the Director of Bands in the Sunderman Conservatory of Music at Gettysburg College in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. At Gettysburg, he conducts the Wind Symphony and administers the band program including the Symphony Band and the Bullets Marching Band. In addition, he teaches conducting, music education, music technology, and supervises student teachers in the field.

Dr. McCutcheon received his Ph.D. in Music Education with a concentration in Wind Conducting from the University of Florida in Gainesville and earned a Master of Science in Music Education from Troy University in Troy, Alabama.

Bands under his direction have performed in the Great Guild Hall in Latvia, the Kaunas Philharmonic Hall in Lithuania, the Gewandhaus Mendelssohn Hall in Germany, Smetana Hall in the Czech Republic, and in Estonia, China, Singapore, England, Scotland, Italy, Canada and Switzerland.

In 2024, McCutcheon was named winner of The American Prize in Conducting, Musical Theater Division for his work conducting “The Prom,” produced at Gettysburg’s Majestic Theater by the Gettysburg College Department of Theater in collaboration with the Sunderman Conservatory of Music. Of his conducting, composer Steven Bryant said: “Russell McCutcheon brings a unique mix of talents and experience to his music-making...my work, Ecstatic Waters, requires the players and the conductor to go above and beyond their usual roles, and he demonstrated fantastic attention to both the musical and the technical details of my music.”

In 2020, the Sunderman Conservatory Wind Symphony released The Music of Brian Balmages, Volume 1. Featuring the music of composer Brian Balmages, this recording was named GRAMMY® nomination eligible in four categories. In 2013, the Sunderman Conservatory Wind Symphony released a recording titled: Gettysburg at 150: Music of the American Civil War. This recording, commemorating the Sesquicentennial Anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, was named GRAMMY® nomination eligible in two categories.

Dr. McCutcheon is the founding conductor of the Atlantic Chamber Winds, whose recordings, Volumes I and II of The Cochran Chamber Winds Commissioning Series, were released in 2012 and 2016 on the Mark Masters label. Volume II of this series was named 2016 GRAMMY® nomination eligible in the categories of Album of the Year and Best Orchestral Performance.
